I have spent the better part of the last week coaching businesses on how to creatively adjust and retain customers. I'll be adding this to my list of examples of how to do it right! And I didn't see Uber Eats coming! Nice touch and much appreciated. -Kellie

Sounds like an experience we certainly won't forget :) Thanks for all the creativity and support! - Jenny

We all will be challenged over the next couple of months, but thoughtful considerations like these, and the tremendous communications effort Olin has put into practice, certainly help smooth the waters! - Pete

Through Go Week, DC, Leadership and China you and your team have taken great care of us, and have shown admirable flexibility in helping us get so close to the line, despite this global pandemic. - Ben
